JUXTAPOZ ART+CULTURE

Juxtapoz and Friends Present “Surf Craft,” A Benefit + Auction for Puerto Rico and US Virgin Islands

October 15, 2017-October 21, 2017

Since 2013, Juxtapoz has teamed with Waves For Water, a non-profit organization founded by pro surfer Jon Rose that is committed to bringing portable water filters to provide clean water for areas of the world in desperate need. With the devastating hurricanes that have hit Puerto Rico in September 2017, Juxtapoz has once again teamed with Waves For Water for another series of "Surf Craft" surfboards that will be auctioned off to support the non-profits efforts for Puerto Rico relief. We will also be working with the Changing Tides Foundation as part of our 2017 fundraising.
